

HELPING CANCER PATIENTS THROUGH Rehabilitation

Rehabilitation during and after cancer treatments can help patients regain physical and cognitive abilities, while minimizing side effects of the treatments or disease.

At ClearSky Rehabilitation Hospital of Leesville, a physician-led, multi-disciplinary team works with patients and their families to customize treatment plans to increase independence and quality of life.

Our team strives to decrease disease and treatment-related impairments, by addressing:

- Chemotherapy-induced neuropathy or myopathy
- Radiation-induced neuropathy
- Fatigue or weakness
- Strength and stamina
- Decreased mobility
- Balance disorders
- Speech or swallowing difficulties
- Chronic or acute pain
- Paralysis
- Decreased memory or cognitive difficulties
- Lymphedema
- Distress and anxiety
